
APPLICATION FORM FOR THE USE OF IH-DATA FOR RESEARCH PURPOSES

The Institute of Environmental Hydraulics of the University of Cantabria (IHCantabria) provides to investigators / institutions of a public or private nature its database of meteo-oceanographic variables (IH-Data), free of charge for use in scientific works or about characterization of the climate, for non-profit projects.

To request data from IH-Data it is necessary to fill this form and send it to the following email address:
ihdata@ihcantabria.com

Applicant data:

- Name:
- Position:
- Organization/institution.....
- Address:
- E-mail:
- Phone number:

Data required:

- Wind
- Waves
- Sea level
- Currents
- Others (specify):

Description of the purpose of the work to be performed with the required data (specify the associated project, if necessary):

.....

.....

.....

The applicant declare the followings liabilities:

- All intellectual property rights of the corresponding data belong and will belong to IHCantabria. The applicant acknowledges that doesn't have the property rights, of any kind, of the data.
- The requested data will be used for the purpose of the scientific activity described and, in no case, will be used in paid work contracted by third parties.
- The requested data will not be distributed, commercialized, rented, sold, commercially exploited, lent or given away.
- The reference to the source (The Institute of Environmental Hydraulics of the University of Cantabria) has to be present in all the publications, reports or presentations derived from the use of the requested data.

Name:

Date (dd/mm/yyyy):

(Signature)

